

General Membership Meeting

Workplace Harassment and Discrimination Prevention

THURSDAY MAY 1, 2025
5:30 PM

Topics for Discussion

Join us at the Chapter Office Thursday, May 1st for the General Membership Meeting to hear from Alicia McDonnell, Senior Associate Attorney, as she talks about Workplace Harassment and Discrimination, what it is, what it looks like, and what laws help protect employees and your company from discrimination in the workplace. This presentation will outline state and federal laws that protect employees from harassment and discrimination in the workplace and provide guidance on how to identify and prevent harassment and discrimination at work.

Business Meeting to Follow: Updates on ongoing Educational Opportunities in our Chapter, happenings in our Jurisdiction and Inside Wire Negotiations.

Stick around for the NECA National Survey and give your input on how valuable NECA is to you, your team, and your company.

Alicia McDonnell

Alicia McDonnell joined Employer Solutions Law in June 2022. She represents employers in workers' compensation claims and appeals, DOSH/WISHA violations, and employment law matters. Prior to joining Employer Solutions Law, Alicia represented claimants in workers' compensation claims before the Department of Labor and Industries, Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals, and Superior Courts.

Alicia's experience gives her valuable insight into workers' compensation claims and litigation, which helps her better serve Washington employers. She uses her knowledge of the process from both sides of the table to help employers achieve outcomes that are both favorable and cost-effective.
